Head Quarters 1st Miss Volc
Camp Minnesota, Washington
July 29, 1861

Sir,

I have the honor to request that you lend to me from your State one hundred and fifty able-bodied men, to fill up the rattle of the 1st Miss Regiment, occasioned by our loss at the Battle of Belle Plain on the 21st inst, and those who are necessary to be discharged. Your Obd. Srvt.

W. A. Gorman
Col. 1st Regt. Min.

To His Excellency
Alex. Ramsey
Gov. of Min.

To Alex Ramsey

Dear Sir,

I have your despatch requesting me to telegraph the condition of our Regiment. I went to the office to obtain the correct information. Formerly I told him that you had requested him to telegraph the number of lost and killed anywhere to be sent, and I told him that I could do so. I told him that the despatch was sent at once. Formerly he told me that he would send the list at once, and last Thursday he told me that he had sent it. If the list has not been received I will forward it at once. I did not
