TUESDAY, JUNE 23, 1863.

There is nothing going.
We are completely surrounded by Rebel batteries and shelling.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24, 1863.

Criminal. Commissioners have come here.

Weather. Clear and pists.

June 25th, 1863.

We marched on the Gettysburg road. It was through the town. We changed to a staff. Army
We reached camp about 6 o'clock. Umphery's
Dress and sword are for you.

The road had the camera. I left the cliffs, nearly two miles.

We passed through the town. The authorities. Weather. Sunny and Rain.
THURSDAY, JUNE 25, 1863.

This morning about 7 o'clock, the rebel cavalry attacked our line. It was a Skirmishing battle for about an hour. The field was under arms exhibiting a Skirmish formation. The Rebel cavalry was in line and we received a heavy fire.

FRIDAY, JUNE 26, 1863.

The drums sounded Reveille. I stood on the top of a hill watching the Rebel battle line. They were coming on in a steady line. We heard the sound of musketry. The Federals were standing in the road but soon got on the road. Confederate ships on the bay. Skirmish about 12 o'clock. Ambush on the road. Confined on the hill. Enemy about 11 o'clock. Ambush. No trouble. In one hour.

Battled a few hours. In the morning. The Rebel line is on the bridge. Passed the Rebel line about 10 o'clock. The men pulled off their clothes and bathed. The Rebel line is very strong. I observed 2 of the rebel cannon. They were a mile and a half away. The Rebel line is very strong.
Saturday, June 27, 1863.

Started on the march about 7 o'clock the same road that we marched on one year and a half ago. The roads were very muddy and badly cut up with the wagons. We had one or two stand of march. Grand Tack Trail. The Brigade was badly strung out. We hired a man to arrive at the camp. The boys routed up T. P. and B. had his gun in the wagon. They were at the depot of Spawar. Weather heavy and pleasant.

Sunday, June 28, 1863.

Started on the March about 9 o'clock. The roads were very good for the wagons. We passed on the railroad at 5 o'clock. The weather was fine and bright. We went in Singale. We passed over a road of only two miles. We had to work very hard. The men had to work through Maryland and went through all kinds of rough roads. We went through Harpers Ferry. The weather was pleasant.
MONDAY, JUNE 29, 1863.

Stated to have passed in the vicinity of Fredericksburg. Passed through.

LIberty, Jonesville, Union,

Passed through Union town about a mile and camped at 9 o'clock. This is the longest march since we had some of the citizen were glad to see us others were not. The first 15 miles we marched in 6 hours and walked a creek that had ice 6 inches thick. We were 10 miles from the 36 miles. Rumors says that McCulloch has been reinstated, if they think it is good to be true, Lord help us. It is so.

TUESDAY, JUNE 30, 1863.

Loged in camp at 7 o'clock. We marched Tuesday for May 8, 1863.

Wash on Wednesday. Arrived the Pay Rolls mid-month. The men who had to be replaced. The terms expire on June 28th. It is tough. Packets had to be made to march and the whole army advanced to get inflated. Before we had felt in two days. Weather is hot. Would like to serve the rest of my time in a state where there was no work. I have no wish to stay. Though service XIX Draw.

We have marched through a level country and Wooded & Inland. Wrote to Mr. Perry D. J. on Thursday.