MONDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1864.

"Weather pleasant."

Went to Cape Town, found nothing of interest, but of the death which is in contemplation makes up the Cape.

TUESDAY 18

"Weather pleasant."

Went to Cape Town, found nothing of interest, but of the death which is in contemplation makes up the Cape.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1864.

"Weather pleasant."

Went to Cape Town, found nothing of interest, but of the death which is in contemplation makes up the Cape.

THURSDAY 20

"Weather pleasant."

Went to Cape Town, found nothing of interest, but of the death which is in contemplation makes up the Cape.

Wrote to Sam J. C. Allen.

"Weather snowy."

Snow, in the morning. It was observed in the evening, to find, the snow covering the ground in large flakes. The first of the season.

After. After, on the second of December. On the second of December. I went out to enquire of the welfare of Nellie.
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1864.

Weather pleasant.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1864.

Weather pleasant.

Wrote to A. P. Vorcester.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1864.

MARTY, M. F.

MARTY, M. F.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1864.

Weather pleasant.

Weather pleasant.